Prophecy uttered by God concerning the revival

1. These are the words the Lord spoke to us in the last month of the year two thousand eleven, while I was waiting on the Lord and praying along with the children of God for His word. "Behold, a glorious wave is coming, one that has never appeared in the heart of man nor conceived by men.
2. It was in My heart. I Myself designed it. It was brought forth by Me. It is a wave It is a wave of revival—a wave the earth shall give birth to, one it has never known nor brought forth until now.
3. This is called the end-time revival. I Myself will bring it forth in the last days. Among all the revivals you have heard of so far, this one will be greater and more glorious." Thus says the Lord, "It will be swift, surpassing all things, captivating and powerful, and mighty like a swirling wind.
4. This end-time revival will manifest My power and glory to the nations and peoples of the earth. It will be accomplished through My people who bear My name and are born out of this revival. I shall accomplish it through them.
5. People of the end time shall stand as those whose eyes have been opened. They shall perceive the works of the hidden places and the craftiness of the serpent, and they shall behold the mysteries of the hearts. Their eyes shall be opened so that they may discern what has come and what is yet to come. They shall behold the glory and radiance of the Most High.
6. They are not only people whose eyes have been opened, but also people chosen to help open the eyes of the nation, to give sight to the blind, and the unbelieving eye." Thus says the Lord, "There is power in their hands and gifts in their fingers."
7. I will choose the humble and the weak. He will have authority to open and shut the heavens, to cause the waters to dry up and rise, to make the fields flourish and wither their crops, and to cause the livestock to conceive and to close their wombs.
8. I will fill My servant with My power, and My evangelist with My might. Great will be his strength. He will have power to divide the sea and make a way, and to straighten the forests and make paths. I will perform wonders and miracles over the land where he walks. I will give power even to his shadow.
9. His garment and handkerchief will be filled with strength. Moreover, the glory of My power will be revealed in his gaze and in every place he looks. My power will manifest as fire, brimstone, smoke, and blood," says the Lord.
10. "In those days, all who spoke against Me and rose up against Me will be struck with fear, shutting their mouths and saying, 'Woe unto us, for we are destroyed. The power of God will be revealed, and

His wrath made known, and we will be utterly destroyed. We will live if we embrace Him.' They will run to you, saying, 'What shall we do that we may live?'

11. The days of the end-time revival, where My salvation and power will be revealed, are coming upon the nation like a mighty wave.

12. I will accomplish it through the hands of My people who bear My name. I will accomplish it through their hands alone.

13. Among those who seek Me, I will search for those who belong to Me. I will not regard anyone who is negligent toward Me and My mission. I will use those whom I have sought and found in the end-time revival. Their hands will perform My task, their mouths will proclaim My glory, and their feet will swiftly run to accomplish My will. This will come to pass very soon.

14. In those days, I shall reject the one who seeks to exalt himself so that his name may be glorified, who desires to be honored among the people, and who seeks self-esteem to fill his bosom, and who proclaims to the people that he heard what he did not hear and claims to have seen what he did not see.

15. During the days of the revival, they shall be ashamed. The wickedness of their hands and the deceitfulness of their mouths will be exposed. Just as Moses' staff swallowed up the staffs of the Egyptian magicians, the works of the people of the revival generation will render them powerless.

16. The staff of the magicians is a mere illusion. The people will discern this and despise them.

17. Blessed are those who wait for the fulfillment of My words that I have proclaimed, and who stand on their knees, strengthen themselves, and wait patiently, and who have willingly submitted themselves to serve Me like a son who serves his father, and who receive and believe in My words. The blessings of the revival belong to them.

18. I will accomplish this through them. They will speak on My behalf, go forth, and carry out My work," declares the Lord.

Some notes on the end-time revival

01. The end-time revival will start from South India. It will spread and will also take over North India.

02. It will also spread to other countries. The reason is that revival is world-wide. The possibility is that it shall spread through the Indian descendants living in other countries.

03. The third stage of revival pertain to the revival of Israel. Romans 11:26 talks about the salvation of Israel.

04. The main objective of revival is that in the second coming, the Lord will take over this world and establish His reign in it. That reign will last for 1000 years in this world. The generation that was born in the revival will be the citizens of that reign. They will not be taken away in the rapture at the end of the revival. They are the chosen ones who are left behind as remnants and will be protected by the Lord during the seven year period of tribulation. Those who are chosen as martyrs will die as martyrs. They will not get caught under any of Satan's deceptions and will be gathered in the second coming and dwell as the inhabitants of the millennium reign of God.

Points to be prayed over:

1. Several years have passed since the prophetic words spoken by the Lord about the revival were foretold. But since this revival is a global one, the preparations required for it are also being carried out extensively all over the world. Pray that these works will be completed diligently, and that the Lord will increase His strength, wisdom, and grace upon His servants who have surrendered themselves for this purpose—those who seek His plans day and night and strive to fulfill them. Also, pray that no obstacles arise in their path.

2. Pray for the new generation that the Lord is going to raise up. He has promised to gather the humble to Himself and gird them with strength, power, and spiritual gifts. Pray that such a generation may be raised in great numbers from our families, our churches, and our society. Our children must take part in this revival. Fervent prayers are needed for this.

3. Pray that, in accordance with God's promise, His glory and power may be manifested among the unreached people in the nation. And may the proclamation, "The Lord is God," be heard from every corner of the nation.

4. Pray, keeping in mind that the Lord has promised to visit those who do not know Him and those who rise up against His children. Pray that, just as God opened Saul's eyes and transformed him into Paul, He will also visit many in the nation during the days of revival who have risen against His people, and bring them into His fold, and use them mightily for the glory of His name.

5. Pray for the seven types of revival that the Lord has promised in the revival.

I. Revival of Salvation: Isaiah 52:10

II. Revival of Sanctification: Malachi 3:1–

III. Revival of the Word: Isaiah 2:3, 29:18

IV. Revival of Power: Isaiah 45:22–24

V. Revival of Prayer and Worship: Exodus 15:4

VI. Revival of the Gospel: Matthew 24:14

VII. Revival of the Churches: Ephesians 4:11–16

Some important prayer points have been listed to guide your prayers concerning the revival. Not only these, but also be attentive to other points the Holy Spirit may prompt in your heart as you read this prophecy. Furthermore, read this prophecy prayerfully, and keep them in your heart and wait in the presence of God. During that time, the Lord will speak more things concerning this prophecy. If the Lord reveals any additional details to you, do not hesitate to share them with me. It will help me pass on the most important revelations to others and encourage them to pray as well.

May the Lord bless you. Amen
